HIT PICKS

THE PIGEON DETECTIVES
I'm Not Sorry
(SHOCK)
Impact Date:
May 21

The Pigeon Detectives are set to release their first single entitled I'm Not Sorry, from their brand new album Wait For Me. The band is made up of members Matt (Vocals), Oliver (Guitar), Ryan (Guitar), Dave (Bass) and Jimmi (Drums). The Pigeon Detectives' first two singles, I Found Out and Romantic Type, hit the UK Top 40 and 20 respectively, on the back of no airplay or media hype. I'm Not Sorry is currently on the Radio 1 A-List and heading for the top end of the charts. The Pigeon Detectives are bringing an up to date classic British rock & roll tradition. It won't be long before the masses cotton on! CR, ALT and CHR Nights should get in quick!

CUTE IS WHAT WE AIM FOR
The Curse Of The Curves
(ATL/WMA)
Musicpoint:
May 21

Cute Is What We Aim For is the freshest young colt from the Fueled By Ramen stable (home to such acts as Fall Out Boy, Panic! At The Disco, Gym Class Heroes and The Academy Is...). The boys have earned themselves a passionate online following thus far, and now it's time to hit Oz radio with their debut track, The Curse Of The Curves, taken from their forthcoming debut release, The Same Old Blood Rush With A New Touch. Delivered with a catchy chorus and witty lyrics, this pop song is a solid choice for all CHR Nights with definite potential to cross to Days.

SLINKEE MINX
Way Of Life
(CS/MRA)
Musicpoint:
May 21

Slinkee Minx first burst onto the scene mid-2004 with a remake of Belinda Carlisle's 1989 smash, Summer Rain. The track peaked at #29 on TMN's Hot 100, held the #1 position on the ARIA Dance chart for thirteen consecutive weeks and went on to peak at #9 on the UK Commercial Club Chart. This week, these three talented chicks deliver their newest tune, Way Of Life. Produced by Mr Timothy (Inaya Day, Katie Underwood), Way Of Life is a great dance floor hit filled with sassy vocals and catchy electro-house grooves. A tasty treat for CHR Nights before a potential cross to Day play.

KEN HELL
Truck
(SSR/UMA)
Impact Date:
May 21

Truck is the debut solo single from rapper Ken Hell released. Hailing from Melbourne, the artist formerly known as Naps, Ken Hell was originally a member of both the Ill Flow Affiliation (IFA) crews, as well as being one half of Weapon X and Ken Hell Duo. His effortless abilities as a born entertainer have seen him support the likes of 50 Cent, Lil Jon, as well as his fellow MC companion Weapon X. Ken has received two nominations for Best Urban Release at the Aria Awards. Truck is a hip-hop delight, with witty and fluid raps. Ideal for CHR and CHR Nights formats.

WHITE ROSE MOVEMENT
Alsatian
(KIT/SHOCK)
Impact date:
May 21

Post-punk/electro band from London (UK), White Rose Movement, the band is named after the German anti-Nazi resistance movement White Rose, are set to release their second single from their debut album, Kick. The first single that was released from Kick, which was produced by Paul Epworth (Bloc Party, Babyshambles, The Rapture), was Love Is A Number, with its blast of percussive synths, twangy bass, mechanised guitars and Finn's distinctive soaring vocals. Alsatian fuses an amazing amount of anti-disco synths, hard guitar riffs and heavy bass lines. "[White Rose Movement] has dance rock credentials on both sides" - Rave Magazine. Alsatian is perfect for the ALT formats.
